Delaware Arts Alliance presents Wine, Cheese, & the Arts Event as part of Second Street Players' Movies at Riverfront Theater June 27

June 23, 2015 WILMINGTON---Delaware Arts Alliance (DAA) will hold an arts advocacy networking event, Wine, Cheese, & the Arts, on Saturday, June 27, 2015 from 6 pm to 7:00 pm as part of the Second Street Players' Movies at Riverfront Theater series. Following Wine, Cheese, & the Arts, there will be the Second Street Players' screening of the summer cinematic classic, Jaws. The program is open to the public and all are invited to attend.

Wine, Cheese, & the Arts is part of a series of DAA learning and networking events for Kent, New Castle, and Sussex Counties, Arts Rendezvous, to engage the arts community while creating a strong base of advocates through DAA's Free Individual Membership Campaign. Wine, Cheese, & the Arts provides an informal way for the arts community to mingle and connect.

The program will start with conversation and wine and cheese at 6 pm. At 7 pm, DAA Executive Director Guillermina Gonzalez will make brief remarks on arts advocacy and the benefits of being a member of DAA. At 7:05 pm, the seating for Jaws will begin.

Admission is $5 per person to the Second Street Players at the Riverfront Theater to offset program costs. A selection of cheeses will be served and wine is BYOB. Please rsvp by June 26 to nmercado@delawareartsalliance.org to attend or register at www.delawareartsalliance.org/events. Second Street Players at the Riverfront Theater is located at 2 South Walnut Street in Milford, DE.

The Delaware Arts Alliance is the unifying voice for the arts and arts education throughout the state, advocating for the central role of the arts in advancing dynamic communities and a creative citizenry. DAA is proud to count the Delaware Division of the Arts and Amtrak among its supporters. For more information, please visit www.delawareartsalliance.org.
